AMENDED PRELIMINARY ORDER FOR FORFEITURE

YANDLE, District Judge:

In the Indictment filed in this case on the above cause on May 16, 2023, the United States sought forfeiture of property possessed by Defendant, Shequel L. Sleydin, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. 924(d). The Court, upon consideration of guilty plea in this matter, finds that the following property is forfeitable and hereby ORDERS ITS FORFEITURE:

A Springfield Armory XDM, bearing serial number MG316750, and all ammunition contained therein.

The United States shall provide notice of the forfeiture and the right of persons other than the Defendant who have any claim or legal interest in any of the property to file a petition with the Court. The notice shall be provided in a manner consistent with Supplemental Rule G(4)(a) of the Supplemental Rules for Admiralty or Maritime Claims and Asset Forfeiture Actions.

The Notice shall state that the petition shall be set for a hearing to adjudicate the validity of the petitioner's alleged interest in the property, shall be signed by the petitioner under penalty of perjury, and shall set forth the nature and extent of the petitioner's right, title, or interest in the forfeited property, the time and circumstances of the petitioner's acquisition of the right, title or interest in the property, any additional facts supporting the petitioner's claim, and the relief sought.

Upon the filing of a petition alleging the third-party interests in the property, the Court may amend this Order to resolve the claimed third-party interests.

The United States shall, to the extent practicable, provide direct written notice to any person known to have alleged an interest in the property that is the subject of the Order for Forfeiture, as the substitute for the published notice to those persons so notified.

The United Marshal or the custodian for the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms and Explosives shall seize and reduce to his possession, if he has not already done so, the above-described property.

This Order, pursuant to Rule 32.2(b)(3) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure, shall become final with respect to Defendant Shequel L. Sleydin at the time of the Defendant's sentencing, regardless of whether or not the rights of actual or potential third-party petitioners have been determined by that time. This Order shall be made part of the sentence of Defendant Shequel L. Sleydin and shall be included in the Judgment imposed against the Defendant.

The United States may abandon forfeiture of the property by filing notice of the abandonment with the Court.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
